

M'KINLEY'S BIG BOOM.

A Pittsburgh Committee Here to Arrange Their Clubs' Coming.

SENATOR HISCOCK ON SATURDAY.

He Will Be Escorted to the Central Hall by All the Clubs, Saturday Evening, Where All May Enjoy His Eloquence—Over 1,300 Men Coming From Pittsburgh in the Marching Clubs.

J. D. Little, corresponding secretary, and W. W. Colville, financial secretary, of the American Republican club, of Pittsburgh, came down to Wheeling yesterday to arrange for the visit of their famous club and other Pittsburgh organizations to Wheeling on the occasion of the great big McKinley demonstration next Tuesday. They were in consultation with Chairman Hall, of the Republican county committee, last evening, and the arrangements for the coming of the Pittsburgh delegation were completed.

The American club will arrive on a special train, leaving Pittsburgh at 10 a. m., and arriving here at noon. It will remain until after the demonstration at night. Pittsburgh promises the largest turnout she ever sent here. It will be composed as follows:

American Republican club, 100 men, and the Grand Army band, 28 pieces, Major S. D. Hurlie in command.

Eleventh Ward Republican club, 150 men, Capt. J. A. A. Brown.

C. L. Magee Guards (the Six Footers), sixty men; George Colver, secretary.

Third Ward Allegheny Republican Club, 150 men; W. P. Bennet, president.

Tariff Cadets, eighty men.

Fourteenth Ward Club, 200 men; L. T. Brown, major.

McKeesport Guards, 80 men; J. Emory Thompson in command.

The Conkling Club, 80 men.

The Fourth Ward Club, of Allegheny, 60 men.

The United Italian-American Republican Club, 250 men.

This makes a division of over 1,300 men. Most of the clubs will be accompanied by bands. They are all splendidly uniformed, and are among the crack organizations of the country as Wheeling has occasion to remember of most of them, and especially of the American club, which has always shown a friendly disposition to Wheeling Republicans.

This club has issued a special order calling on members to come to Wheeling in force. In it President W. S. Brown and Secretary George S. Houghton say:

"Major McKinley expressed himself as greatly disappointed when he learned we were not going to the meeting at Washington, Pa. Now let us give him a rousing reception at Wheeling. Let your answer to this appeal be, that you will go, and then constitute yourself a committee of one to get others to do the same."

If the Wheeling Republican clubs show the same interest and enthusiasm the Pittsburghers do, next Tuesday's demonstration will be the grandest ever given in the city.

The Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad will sell half fare tickets from Bowers-town and Steubenville and intermediate points on Tuesday, October 18, for the McKinley meeting and parade at Wheeling. Tickets will be good on all trains. Other railroad arrangements will be announced to-morrow.

THE HISCOCK MEETING.

The Senator will be Here Saturday Evening to Address the People.

U. S. Senator Frank Hiscock, of New York, will address a Republican meeting in the Central headquarters hall, on Market street, Saturday evening. Few orators of as great fame and as high standing have been heard, for either side, in Wheeling this year. He is one of the so-called "Big Four" of New York, and a man of unusual eloquence and force. The hall ought to be packed full.

The Young Men's Republican Escort club has been invited to head an escort in honor of the distinguished senator, and has accepted. The Tariff Champions, Madison district, First ward, Fifth ward, Eighth ward, Union district, Lively Republican Cadets, Ohio county club, and in brief, all the Republican clubs, have been invited also, and as many as possibly can will turn out, headed by a band, and with plenty of red fire, and escort the speaker from his hotel to the hall.

There will be few chances to hear so distinguished an orator in this campaign, and everybody should take advantage of this opportunity.

The Tariff Champions Growing.

A meeting of the Tariff Champions was held at headquarters last night. White gloves were added to the outfit before adopted. Mr. John Davenport presented the club with one hundred silk flag handkerchiefs. The club now numbers ninety members, and is still growing. It bids fair to be the banner Republican organization of the city. It will turn out Saturday night for the Senator Hiscock escort. There will also be an important meeting Monday night, at which every member should be on deck.

Meetings This Evening.

An important meeting of the Young Men's Republican Escort club will be held this evening at the Central hall, to arrange for turning out in honor of Senator Hiscock, Saturday night, and for the big McKinley demonstration next Tuesday.

An important meeting of the Fifth ward Republican club will also be held at its hall this evening, to arrange for turning out.

Martin's Ferry Coming.

Martin's Ferry Republicans are greatly interested in McKinley's meeting and parade in Wheeling next Tuesday and will come in force. The marching clubs of that city and Glenn's Run will probably arrive on a special train over the Terminal railroad, leaving there about 7:30 and returning leaving Wheeling about 11 o'clock.

Belmont County Meetings.

Hon. C. L. Poorman will speak at Belmont, Saturday evening, Oct. 15, and Barnesville, Saturday evening, Oct. 22. Hon. C. L. Weems and Judge W. D. Hoff, Jacobsburg, Oct. 22. Hon. L. Danford, Morristown, Oct. 22, and W. F. Smith and C. J. Howard at New Castle, October 22.

Mrs. and Mrs. D. R. Brooks Entertain a Distinguished Party.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Daid R. Brooks entertained the members of the party who accompanied Wheeling commandery, No. 1, K. T., on the Denver pilgrimage, at their home on Fifteenth street. Many of the guests were from outside of Wheeling.

The affair was in the honor of the seventeenth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, and the guests were all Knights Templars and their wives and families, most of them being also Shriners.

The guests surprised the host and hostess by presenting them with an elegant silver tea set. All had a most enjoyable night, and the exchange of reminiscences of the Denver journey was not its least pleasant feature.

A Pertinent Suggestion.

A well known citizen yesterday made a good suggestion for the use of the assessors for the city taxes. It is that instead of swelling property holders out of reasonable or just proportions, the assessors fulfill the law by returning on their lists the dogs actually owned in the city. This gentleman says he knows of families which own several dogs each and are not assessed for one of them. To list all the canines would add no inconsiderable income to the city.

She Committed Suicide.

Mrs. F. C. Bee, at Watkins, left this letter: "My husband—Forgive me if I cause you trouble, but I suffer so. You do not know what these long, wakeful, wretched nights are to me, and I am so tired, darling—the pain will never be better. It is not easy to take my own life, but I have been sick so long. Good-bye, my husband, I love you—your wife."

This is but one of thousands that gives up, instead of using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and being speedily cured of their wretchedness. Go to Logan Drug Co. and get an elegant book and trial bottle free.

THE KNIGHTS DEPART.

The Session of the Grand Lodge Closed in Due Form Yesterday.

TO MEET AT MARTINSBURG IN 1893.

The Closing Business and the Social Amenities Last Evening—A Memorable Demonstration of the Strength of the Order Passed Into History.

The Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias of West Virginia closed its twenty-third annual session yesterday. Most of the Knights have departed for their homes, but they leave behind them pleasant memories. The people of Wheeling enjoyed the pageantry of the week, and the order made a decidedly favorable impression of its strength in the state as well as the high quality of its makeup.

The third and last day's session opened at 10 a. m. yesterday in the Castle Hall of Ohio Valley lodge, on Market street.

The reports of the committees on laws and supervision and appeals and grievances were heard and disposed of, and the salary of the grand keeper of records and seal was advanced from $300 to $800 per annum.

Charleston and Martinsburg were named for the next place of holding the Grand Lodge meeting, and Martinsburg was selected. The annual session convenes on the second Tuesday in October, 1893.

A resolution was passed that the usual prizes for a competitive drill will be offered next year.

In the afternoon a number of routine matters were attended to, reports received and acted upon, and the regular standing committees for the year appointed. The work was finished and the lodge adjourned about 4 p. m.

Last evening the local knights again kept open house at the Beethoven hall, and scores of visiting brothers and ladies enjoyed the hospitality there afforded. The social feature of the week's visit has been of the most enjoyable character, and the Wheeling members were highly complimented on the way they made it pleasant for the delegates. All leave feeling that Wheeling is a good place to come to.

SQUIRE ARKLE'S COURT.

Various Offenders Various Dealt with by him Yesterday.

In Squire Arkle's court yesterday, Lizzie Fletcher, on complaint of Millissa Dosbury, was fined $1 and costs for using profane language. William West, charged by John West with assault, was dismissed at the complainant's costs, the defendant failing to put in an appearance. James Jones, who was arrested on the charge of not being of good fame, was sent to jail for thirty days in default of $100 bond for good behavior for one year.

Robert Strader, who has been confined in jail since July 8 on the charge of lunacy, was released on application to Squire Arkle on Wednesday, he stating that he desired to go to his old home in Charlottesville, Va. At the time of his release he appeared to be very rational, but later on evinced some very peculiar actions about town. During the night he raised such a disturbance around the Second ward market house, that he was again arrested and taken to jail. Arrangements are being made for his removal to his old home in Virginia.

CAPTAIN CRISWELL DEAD.

A Prominent Republican and Patriot Passes Away to His Reward.

Captain Hanson Criswell, a prominent lawyer of Moundsville, and well known in this state, and more especially in this neighborhood, died at his home yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock.

Captain Criswell was born December 19, 1834. He was a son of George Criswell, a native of Ohio. Captain Criswell's career began at the age of sixteen years, when he taught school in Belmont and Jefferson counties, Ohio. He studied law under W. H. Oldham, of Moundsville, and was admitted to the bar in 1860. On the breaking out of the war he enlisted, August 1861, in Company E, of the Seventy-seventh volunteer infantry. He was taken prisoner by the confederates on the third day of the battle of Pittsburgh Landing. He was exchanged, and then became the first prosecutor of Marshall county under the new state. From that time until the present his history is well known. He was ever a consistent Republican and forever a grand patriot.

Not a Campaign Issue.

A good many people seem to have an idea that the Presidential Campaign is not attracting as much attention as usual. Maybe it isn't, but one thing is certain those new "Grandfather's Hat" cakes recently put on the market are proving immensely popular. We are told that The Wheeling Bakery with all their facilities for baking great quantities in a short time, can scarcely supply the demand. And it isn't political sentiment that is making the demand either, for Democrats as well as Republicans buy them. "Grandfather's Hat" cakes are really delightful dainties and it is no wonder that the people like them. Ask your grocer for them.

NOTABLE NUPTIALS.

One Couple Married while the Bride's Parents Celebrate their Wedding Anniversary.

At eight o'clock last evening there was solemnized a very quiet but pretty wedding at the home of the bride on South Market street, the contracting parties being Mr. John P. Kindleberger, connected with the North Wheeling Glass works, and Miss Lizzie Marguerite Meyer, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Meyer.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. H. Dornblaser, assisted by Rev. Paul Zeigelmeyer. The parlors were beautifully decorated with potted plants, ferns and cut flowers. At one end, where the happy couple was stationed during the ceremony, was suspended a large floral bell, the taper being made of two connecting floral rings of yellow flowers. The bride was beautifully attired in a handsome wedding gown of beige crystalline silk, cut high and made on train, and she carried a huge bunch of white roses.

The only attendants were Miss Anna B. Myer, a sister of the bride, and Mr. Charles Kindelberger, a brother of the groom. At the conclusion the guests were seated at a bounteous wedding lunch served by Mrs. Zeigelmeyer.

A number of handsome presents testified to the high regard in which the happy couple were held by their friends, who also showered warm congratulations and good wishes upon them. The event was made doubly happy by the celebration at the same time of the forty-second wedding anniversary of the bride's parents.

CHILDREN STARVING.

The Pitiful Story Told by a Pittsburgh Mother to the Police.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 13.—A pitiful case of starvation and destitution from the South side was brought to the notice of Chief Elliott, of the Department of Charities, last evening. It was that of Mrs. Annie McKinsey, of Carson street. She is the mother of three small children, all of whom are sick; the youngest one, six months old, is not expected to recover. Messenger Daniel Diehl was directed by Chief Elliott to go and make an official report of Mrs. McKinsey's case, and render her the necessary assistance. According to instructions Mr. Diehl repaired to the house this morning, and what he learned was a sad story. It was to this effect:

"Four years ago I married John McKinsey in Ohio. Shortly after we came to Pittsburgh and he got employment on the railroad as a brakeman. It was but a few months before he began to abuse me. He would get drunk and come home after I had retired. He would make me get up, build a fire and cook him a meal. I remonstrated many a time, but was only abused, and he would hiss at me and say: 'Didn't you promise to honor and obey me?'"

"We have three children. His abuse continued, and finally I threatened to sue him for cruelty and non-support. That, I guess, frightened him, for on the night of July 5 he left home, since which time I have not heard from him, only through some of his friends. One of these told me he heard he was killed on the railroad about a month ago. The children have been sick for two weeks. To tell the truth, I believe they have been starved. All day Sunday there was not a bite of anything in the house to eat, and the children kept crying for bread, until one of the neighbors heard his cries and brought us in a meal. I can starve myself, but it breaks my heart to hear my babies cry for bread."

Messenger Diehl reported the case to Chief Elliott, and he ordered fuel for the family and sent a physician to render medical assistance to the children. The chief, in speaking of the case today, said:

"It was one of the most pitiful cases of the kind that has ever been brought to our notice. I believe the children have been literally starved, and that accounts for their sickness. However, I will look after them, but let me get my hands on the ungrateful husband! Won't I make it warm for him? You can just imagine how interesting our meeting will be."

Mrs. M. SCHAEFER, Beaver Dam, Wis., writes: "We have used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in our family for Coughs, Colds, Croup and Rheumatism. It cures every time."
